FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

SMALL TABLES.

For bedrooms, what is handier than the small reading table, with a drawer or two underneath? It gives ample space for books, magazines, and settledowns of all descriptions. In a man's den it is a fine place for papers, writing materials, and all the odds and ends men like to have at hand. Even such comforts are now below factory prices, as we must have space for autumn novelties coming from the factory. "BUY OF THE MAKER"
